US Secy of State holds trade talks with Brazil's FM

LULA MADE THE STATEMENT IN KUALA LUMPUR AFTER MEETING WITH US PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP. LULA HAS BEEN SEEKING A DEAL SINCE THE WHITE HOUSE SLAPPED A 50 PER CENT TARIFF ON BRAZILIAN EXPORTS IN JULY DUE TO LEGAL PRESSURE ON TRUMP ALLY AND FORMER PRESIDENT JAIR BOLSONARO.

AGENCY

WASHINGTON: US Secretary of State Marco Rubio on Thursday (local time) held talks with Brazilian Foreign Minister Mauro Vieira on US-Brazil trade. Rubio and Vieira talked about matters of mutual importance. In a post on X, Rubio said, "Met with Brazilian Foreign Minister Mauro Vieira at the Department today. We discussed matters of mutual importance and a reciprocal framework for the US-Brazil trade relationship."

Earlier, on October 27, Brazil's President Luiz Inacio Lula da Silva stated that a trade deal between Brazil and the United States could be sealed within days, reported Al Jazeera. Lula made the statement in Kuala Lumpur after meeting with US President Donald Trump. Lula has been seeking a deal since the White House slapped a 50 per cent tariff on Brazilian exports in July due to legal pressure on Trump ally and former President Jair Bolsonaro. Lula described his meeting with Trump, on the sidelines of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) summit, as "surprisingly good", and said he received assurance that a deal can be reached soon. "He guaranteed to me that we will reach an agreement," Lula told a news conference. "I am very confident that in a few days we will reach a solution." Later, as he made his way to Japan, Trump also signalled that a deal is likely following "a great meeting," Al Jazeera reported. "We'll see what happens," the US president told reporters. "They'd like to do a deal." A deal could avert punitive US tariffs after months of animosity between Lula and Trump, whose relationship has warmed since an unscheduled meeting at the United Nations in New York earlier.

The Trump administration imposed a tariff of 50 per cent on Brazilian products in July. It linked the decision to what the US president described as a "witch hunt" against Bolsonaro. Lula said that during the meeting in Malaysia, he had presented Trump with a document outlining arguments against the tariff hike. While the document acknowledged the US has the right to impose the measures, its move was based on "mistaken information", the Brazilian president said.

Chinese spokesperson says "Taiwan is China's Taiwan," signals that reunification "must" be achieved

BEIJING: China's Foreign Ministry spokesperson on Friday said that "Taiwan is China's Taiwan" and asserted that the country "must and will achieve reunification," warning that "how to solve the Taiwan question and achieve reunification is China's own affair that does not tolerate any foreign interference."

the 1.4 billion Chinese people." Reiterating China's long-held position, Sun stressed that Taiwan is an integral part of China and that decisions on the Taiwan question rest solely with Beijing.

He warned that no external force would be allowed to interfere. Sun also noted that 2025 marks the 80th anniversary of both the victory in the Chinese People's War of Resistance Against Japanese Aggression and the restoration of Taiwan. He said Japan's wartime history should serve as a reminder that attempts to obstruct China's "national reunification" would face a firm response. China urged Japan to correct its approach, withdraw the remarks, and avoid "further missteps."

"Taiwan is China's Taiwan. How to resolve the Taiwan question and achieve reunification is China's own affair, which doesn't tolerate any foreign interference. China must and will achieve reunification."

We, the Chinese people, have very resolute will and conviction to thwart any external interference and obstruction to China's reunification," said Jian Lin said the Taiwan issue is purely China's domestic matter and added that Beijing "must and will achieve reunification."

His remarks came as tensions rose between China and Japan over comments made by Japan's newly elected Prime Minister Sanae Takaichi.

Beijing on Thursday lodged a strong protest after Vice Foreign Minister Sun Weidong summoned Japanese Ambassador Kenji Kanasugi over what China described as "erroneous" and "provocative" remarks by Takaichi regarding Taiwan, according to reports carried by Global Times. China accused Takaichi of making inflammatory statements, including hints of possible armed involvement in the Taiwan Strait. Sun told the Japanese envoy that the comments were "extremely serious" in both nature and impact. Despite earlier demarches, Tokyo had "refused to retract" the remarks, prompting Beijing's fresh protest. Sun said Takaichi's comments constituted blatant interference in China's internal affairs and violated international law, basic diplomatic norms, and the one-China principle.

He added that the remarks went against the four political documents that frame China-Japan relations and damaged the political foundation of bilateral ties.

The comments, he said, also "deeply hurt the feelings of
